RVO Names New Board President

Kelly Smith has accepted the role of President of the Board of Directors of Rowan Vocational Opportunities, Inc. according to Gary Yelton, Executive Director. She has been a board member for nearly ten years and replaces Gary Elmore, who recently accepted the position of Production Manager at Cabarrus Vocational Opportunities.

Kelly is a graduate of East Rowan High School and earned a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Catawba College. She currently serves as Manager of Legal Compliance Records for Retail Business Services, LLC, a division of Ahold Delhaize, USA. She is also a member of the Granite Quarry Zoning Board of Adjustment and a member of Bethel Lutheran Church in Salisbury. Kelly is active in several community service projects as well. She has been married to her husband, Todd, for over 30 years.

"Having worked with Kelly previously, she has demonstrated her commitment and passionate support for individuals and groups with developmental and intellectual disabilities. I am looking forward to collaborating with Kelly and our other board mem-
